The City of Cardiff Council

Recruitment Pack

Assistant Director - Children's Services

Dear Applicant,

Re: Assistant Director, Children's Services

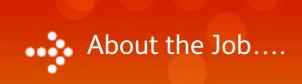

Thank you for your interest in this exciting and challenging role.

This is a good time to be joining the Directorate since much has been achieved during the last 2 years to ensure that the Directorate is a strong position to deliver better outcomes for children in need and children looked after

Children's Services is a top priority for the Council, receiving strong support from the Cabinet and the Chief Executive. An effective and integrated programme of strategic improvement initiatives has made very good progress in stabilising the service and we are determined to maintain impetus. Among the strides we have made recently are a newly configured service in place to enable specialist focus on Looked After Children (LAC) and Children in Need(CiN) - staff are enthusiastic about the change; a newly launched traineeship scheme for LAC; a significantly strengthened Corporate Parenting Board; a newly merged regional Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB); the award to the Directorate of the hosting role for the new Welsh National Adoption Service; a newly re-branded and successful recruitment and retention strategy; a significantly improving recruitment position with improving morale; improving performance trend across a range of measures.

If successful, you will complete a newly formed, energetic and mutually supportive senior management team with a clear commitment to deliver on our high profile Improvement Plan. You will play a key role in ensuring the effective operation of the Directorate and on delivering the Improvement plan. For an ambitious senior manager there is much scope for you in this programme of work, including

- Embedding a commissioning-led approach to strategic development
- Rebalancing services in favour of prevention
- Establishing a MASH (on target for spring 2016)
- Implementing a ground breaking early help strategy
- Implementing restorative approaches and signs of safety in our model of social work
- Creating and designing new approaches and whole-systems services with other directorates
- Responding to the Welsh Government's Social Services and Well Being Act
- An emergent model of services for disabled children drawing on best practice pathfinders

We have an energetic and committed workforce, innovative programmes of development and aspirations to be everything that services in a capital city should be. We remain conscious however, that a step change is needed in terms of the pace of change and that at the same time, a stable and well supported workforce is key. We are also facing a context of sharply diminishing local government resources and we know that we need to ensure the sustainability of services that prioritise those at risk and those most in need. To do that effectively, we need to ensure that we intervene early and reduce the need for intensive and high cost services.

If these competing challenges don't sound like a familiar children's services picture then this is probably not the job for you. If they do and you are eager to meet the challenge, to bring energy and a willingness to work as part of an able and committed management team, I would be interested in hearing from you.

I am looking for a person who is focused on children, who values high professional standards and knows how to ensure that the quality of practice across a complex service continues to improve, who can in effect translate values and vision into practice and delivery. You will be a qualified social worker with substantial experience of managing statutory children's services. You will have the ability to manage a wide portfolio of responsibilities within a council environment and be able to work well with partners, with regulators and inspectors and with members and staff.

If you interested in this post and want to know more please contact Tony Young, Director of Social Services on 02920 873803.
