We will be celebrating Black History Month in October through a number events happening in Cardiff. It is a city that welcomes multi-ethnic, multi-religion/non religion, all gender, all ability and all sexuality people. With increasing hate crime, racism and Islamophobia, Brexit and poverty divisions; and when we know our workforce is not representative of the population we serve and therefore our services are not engaging with all parts of our society, was it right to slash the equality budget by 40%?
