The City of Cardiff Council Recruitment Pack

Assistant Director of Education

Agenda Item 6

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in this post.

Education is at the heart of the drive for improvement in the City of Cardiff Council. It is also a key priority for improvement across Wales. Cardiff, as the capital city, is centrally placed to play a leading role in delivering the improvement expected.

Working with our partners in the Central South Education Consortium we have made significant progress in tackling some long-standing problems, changing the culture and re-framing aspirations and expectations. We are now setting out a clear plan for building on this base to ensure consistently excellent education in schools throughout the city.

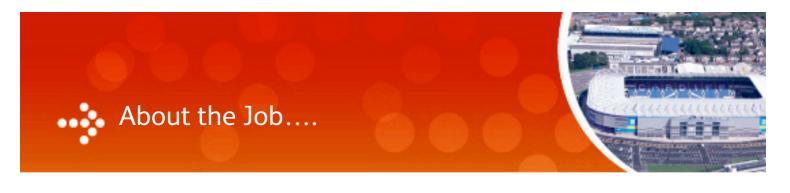

The Council is seeking the right people with the professional expertise, managerial capacity and fresh perspectives to support the political leadership in delivering a fast-paced and ambitious agenda to achieve the Council's vision for the city.

This is an exciting opportunity to become part of a senior management team in a leading public sector organisation with 15,000 employees delivering over 700 individual services to over 350,000 residents.

The role offers significant professional challenges, and real rewards. The person appointed will work closely with me to shape and deliver the next phase of our improvement. They will have lead responsibility for service delivery; will be highly visible to school leaders and governors; and with me will work closely with elected members to deliver the ambitions of the Cabinet.

If you would like an informal discussion about this role please contact me on 029 20 872700.

Nick Batchelar Director of Education

Education Directorate

Assistant Director of Education Salary £82,416

The City of Cardiff Council is committed to achieving a step-change in educational attainment to secure the best possible outcomes for learners in the capital city of Wales. Performance has improved significantly, and we are now setting out an ambitious programme to take this forward over the next five years, putting education at the heart of the city's future economic and social prosperity.

Reporting to the Director of Education, you will have lead responsibility for service delivery and will be highly visible to school leaders and governors. The role offers significant professional challenge, and real scope for making a difference.

For an informal discussion about this post, please contact the Director of Education, Nick Batchelar on (029) 2087 2700.

The Recruitment Process

Should you decide to make a formal application, the first stage will be shortlisting based on your application. This is a Member appointment.

Closing Date

Friday 27th May 2016 at 12 noon

Enquiries

If you wish to have an informal discussion prior to application, please contact the Director of Education, Nick Batchelar on 029 2087 2700.

Equal Opportunities

Equal opportunities will be afforded to all applicants. Appointment will be made on merit.

Role Title: Assistant Director of Education

Grade : Assistant Director Spot Salary
