The City of Cardiff Council Recruitment Pack

Assistant Director - Children's Services

Letter from the Director

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in this exciting and challenging role.

This is a good time to be joining the Social Services Directorate since much has been achieved during the last 24 months to ensure that the Directorate is in a strong position to deliver better outcomes for the children and young people of Cardiff. Across a basket of national measures, the Council's Social Services was rated as the most improved in Wales during 2015-16 and we received a very positive whole service inspection of Children's Services in March 2016.

For those of you across the border, it is also a good time to come to Wales as a national study last year showed that social workers in Wales are happier, feel better supported and stay longer. In addition, we have just implemented a new Social Services and Well Being Act which extends the rights of children to better outcomes.

Children's Services is a top priority for the Council, receiving strong support from the Cabinet and the Chief Executive. An effective and integrated programme of strategic improvement initiatives has made very good progress in stabilising the service and we are determined to maintain impetus. Among the strides we have made in the last 24 months, and as confirmed by our strong inspection outcome are:

- A newly configured service in place to enable specialist focus on Looked After Children (LAC)
- An excellent and award winning in house traineeship scheme for LAC
- A significantly strengthened Corporate Parenting Board
- The award to the Directorate of the hosting role for the new Welsh National Adoption Service
- A successful recruitment and retention strategy and a significantly improving recruitment position
- Improving performance trend across a range of measures.
- Newly established MASH
- Newly implemented agile and mobile working – social workers now have the latest technology in the Council
- More manageable caseloads
- Substantial additional investment in services for disabled children
- An effective 'Not in Our City, Not to Our Children' Child Sexual Exploitation strategy supported by additional investment
- A new partnership Early Help strategy supported by new investment in best practice interventions
- A programme of implementation to support Signs of Safety

Letter from the Director con't...

If successful, you will complete a newly formed, energetic and mutually supportive senior management team with a clear commitment to deliver on our high profile Improvement Plan. You will play a key role in ensuring the effective operation of the Directorate and on delivering the Improvement plan. For an ambitious senior manager there is much scope for you in this programme of work, including

- Embedding a commissioning-led approach to strategic development
- Rebalancing services in favour of prevention
- Creating and designing new approaches and whole-systems services with other directorates
- Responding to the Welsh Government's Social Services and Well Being Act
- An emergent model of services for disabled children drawing on best practice pathfinders

We have a committed workforce, innovative programmes of development and aspirations to be everything that services in a capital city should be. We are also facing a context of sharply diminishing local government resources and know that we need to ensure the sustainability of services that prioritise those at risk and those most in need. To do that effectively, we need to ensure that we intervene early and reduce the need for intensive and high cost services.

If these competing challenges don't sound like a familiar children's services picture then this is probably not the job for you. If they do and you are eager to meet the challenge, to bring energy and a willingness to work as part of an able and committed management team, I would be interested in hearing from you.

We need an individual who is focused on children, who is passionate about high professional standards, knows how to ensure that the quality of practice across a complex service continues to improve and who can translate values and vision into practice and delivery. You will be a qualified social worker with substantial experience of managing statutory children's services combined with the ability to manage a wide portfolio of responsibilities within a council environment and be able to work well with partners, with regulators and inspectors and with members and employees.

Yours faithfully

Tony Young
