Cardiff Council Recruitment Pack Director Social Services

This document is available in Welsh/ Mae'r ddogfen hon ar gael yn Gymraeg

Letter from the Leader

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in this exciting and challenging role.

Cardiff has been reinvented over the past quarter of a century as an internationally recognised capital city. This success can be seen in the rapid growth of the city's population with Cardiff now one of the fastest growing and most highly skilled major British cities. It can also be evidenced by strong performance in a number of headline economic indicators with unemployment down, employment growth up and visitor numbers having doubled over the last decade.

However, the proceeds of Cardiff's growth over recent decades have not been felt by all of the city's residents. The gap between the most and least prosperous communities in Cardiff is substantial. Similarly, while Cardiff's population growth is a sign of strength for the city, unless it is well-planned and well-managed it will put the city's physical and social infrastructures under real strain. This risk to the city's productivity, quality of life and standard of public services must be addressed. Tackling inequality and managing growth sustainably will therefore be at the heart of the Council's agenda.

The administration also recognises that it must deliver for Cardiff during a period of unprecedented financial austerity for the Council, and its public service partners. Protecting the services that are most important to residents will mean challenging old ways of working and embracing change where we are convinced it will deliver better services for the people of Cardiff.

As an organisation we must move away from dealing with problems in isolation and begin to integrate frontline teams that are empowered to address the day-to-day issues we know need solving. In the same way, individual directorates can no longer operate as silos: the Council must act as one seamless team to drive improvement across the city.

More broadly, the Council must work across the public services to deliver lasting solutions to complex problems. Removing the barriers that prevent people from getting a job, delivering the best outcomes for children in our care and helping people to live independently all require services to be delivered without boundaries. It demands a relentless focus on service integration to deliver the outcomes that we want to achieve.

A successful capital city is also a national, not just a regional, asset. We must be an outward-looking city, working with all our partners to make sure that Cardiff's success is shared with local people, regional partners and the country as a whole. Cardiff must be a capital city that works for Wales.

The Administration has therefore set out in its policy statement- 'Capital Ambition'- a programme of action to create opportunity, manage growth and reform public services whilst ensuring that the benefits of success are felt by all residents.

We invite you to take up the challenge with us.

Councillor Huw Thomas Leader of the Council

New Morrie

Letter from the Chief Executive

Dear Applicant

Cardiff Council is committed to working with partners in the public and third sectors to continue to improve our services and support our most vulnerable citizens, including looked after children, older people, individuals with learning or physical disabilities, those living with mental ill-health, or substance misuse. We are also committed to providing the highest quality of social care possible, in practice and delivery, in line with the administration's Capital Ambition commitments.

We are continuing to experience severe financial pressures that require services to be challenged to deliver extremely high levels of savings and to meet demand pressures in the area of social services, which continue to increase. For example, the number of citizens in Cardiff aged between 65 and 84 is projected to rise by 45% over the next 20 years, and the number over 85 years old expected to nearly double.

The post of Director of Social Services will make a crucial senior-level contribution towards enabling the Council to respond positively to the demand pressures, costs and budgetary challenges associated with the provision of social services to support vulnerable adults and children in Cardiff by reshaping sustainable social services for the future

The post-holder will discharge the statutory duties and responsibilities of the Director of Social Services role and have line management responsibility for two Assistant Directors covering the full spectrum of adults and children's services respectively. The successful candidate will also be responsible for reporting personally on an annual basis to the Cabinet and Council on the achievements and improvement priorities of Social Services in Cardiff and ensuring that effective performance management processes are in place across the directorate.

You will be required to demonstrate professional leadership in managing the breadth and complexity of social services risks and challenges, including ensuring that the Council's safeguarding arrangements are robust and effective. You will also play a lead role in the continued development of integrated health and social care services on a regional or national footprint, based on effective partnership working with health services and other local authorities.

You will be joining an experienced, talented and committed Senior Management Team providing the professional leadership needed to deliver the administration's Capital Ambition agenda. It is an exciting opportunity.

Yours sincerely

Paul Orders Chief Executive
