Letter from the Director

Dear Applicant,

Re: Assistant Director (Adults), Social Services

Thank you for taking the time to review this application pack for the position of Assistant Director of Adult Services in Cardiff. If you are motivated by making a real difference to people's lives and by the opportunity of leading social services in an ambitious capital city with the scale, sense of purpose and people to be the very best – then please read on!

This is an exciting time to come to Cardiff. As the new Director of Social Service in Cardiff, I am committed to developing a dynamic leadership team with the right values, professional experience and tenacity to take social service performance to the leading edge supporting the best possible outcomes for all our citizens.

Social Services in Cardiff benefits from being part of the newly formed People and Communities Directorate that provides for huge opportunities to work preventatively and collaboratively to support people to live the lives they want to live. There are already excellent examples in practice of the difference this approach can make such as through the independent living service and young person's accommodation gateway.

We are particularly interested in hearing from you if you are:

- passionate about understanding and building on strengths – in individuals' lives and the teams and partnerships in which we work;
- an outward looking leader, committed to developing focussed and effective partnerships, across the Council, with key partners, and with the people and communities we serve;
- a professional expert with considerable knowledge of strength based practice and experience of building teams who can embed this approach to excellent practice across all social care teams and services;
- able to motivate, support and develop the culture and practice of the whole social care workforce;
- able to translate improved practice and innovative services into business cases which deliver cost efficiencies and are cost effective;
- a skilled commissioner, with understanding of how to develop progressive services through high value relationships with providers;
- able to quickly identify the most significant risks and manage and mitigate them;
- committed to safeguarding people and can demonstrate the ability to work effectively in partnership to proactively safeguard and protect;
- passionate about the very highest standards of quality and performance, and having the right range of information available to drive continuous improvement; and,
- able to demonstrate the innovation and creativity necessary to be truly person centred;
- personally resilient and solution focused in the face of the many challenges, not least significantly reducing budgets, we will inevitably face!

Cardiff is a fantastic place to work and live – a vibrant and diverse city. The Council, through its Capital Ambition programme is committed to addressing the root causes of deprivation and inequality, which are key causes of vulnerability and can increase the need for statutory social services. You will be joining a social services department which has made considerable progress in recent years. . Across a basket of national measures, the Council's Social Services was rated as the most improved in Wales during 2015-16 and we received a very positive whole service inspection of Children's Services in March 2016. There is, of course, much more to do – to better integrate our services, to develop our workforce, our practice and commissioning and to connect people better to the considerable assets within our communities. You will have the full backing and support of the Council's leadership team, you will be able to deliver not just sustainable social services but truly excellent public services.

Applicants not currently working in Wales should be enthused by the opportunity to lead in a public services environment with a progressive and enabling legislative framework through the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act, 2015, the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act, 2014, and the Regulation and Inspection of Social Care (Wales) Act, 2016. Social Services leaders in Wales benefit from a supportive peer network through the Association of Directors of Social Services (ADSS) and lots of opportunities for personal development and to get involved in developing and influencing policy at a national level. Wales is a great place to realise your personal ambitions to lead in an integrated social services – adult and children – environment. As a recent national study highlighted that social workers in Wales are happier, feel better supported and stay longer.

Therefore, if you feel you have the values, skills, behaviours, energy and experience to improve the lives of Cardiff's most vulnerable citizens, then we would love to hear from you. Please call me on 02920 873803 for an informal discussion about the role. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully

Claire Marchant
Director of Social Services

CARDIFF COUNCIL

Assistant Director, Adults Services

Salary - £83,240 per annum (Awaiting pay award)

This is an opportunity to work in a vibrant and diverse city and to complete a dynamic team. In return, we ask you to bring leadership and communication skills plus the passion and experience to deliver innovative, partnership-focused services to take both of us to the next level.

We have an energetic and committed workforce, innovative programmes of development and aspirations to be everything that a capital city service should be. We remain conscious, however, that a step change is needed in terms of the pace of change.

This post offers an opportunity to join and strengthen a high level of collaboration with our strategic partners in Education, Health, Housing and the Third Sector and with our neighbouring authorities.

The people focused Social Services and Well Being Act 2014, which took effect in April 2016, provides a distinctive Welsh policy agenda for change. This change gives greater impetus to prevention, integration, independence, advocacy and voice and opens new possibilities for creative and strategic thinkers.

An effective and integrated programme of strategic improvement initiatives has made very good progress in bringing in new thinking in relation to demand management and prevention including a Single Point Contact. Among the strides we have made are a contract for a modernised learning disability service; a recently established Regional Adults Safeguarding Board; a new vulnerable adult's accommodation strategy; positive inspection feedback in relation to DOLS and most recently Domiciliary Care.

With substantial experience of managing and commissioning at a senior level within health and social services, your experience will include a strong track record in safeguarding, leading the development of innovative practice and delivering improved standards and service quality.

Your ability to contribute to innovative delivery models that support financial sustainability against a reducing local government budget base will be an important skill.

If these challenges excite you and you are eager to join a committed management team, we would be interested in hearing from you. For further information or an informal conversation about this post please contact Claire Marchant, Director Social Services on telephone 02920 8773803.

Closing Date: 29 July 2018 at 11.59pm

Safeguarding and Child Protection are key priorities for the Council. We aim to support children and vulnerable adults to ensure they are as safe as they can possibly be. Our services and schools are committed to ensuring the safety and protection of all children and vulnerable adults, and will take action to safeguard their well-being, and acknowledge that children and vulnerable adults have a right to protection. This is supported in the general ethos of the Council and all schools.

This post is subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service Enhanced check.

This vacancy is suitable for post share.

We welcome applications in both English and Welsh.
