Council Tax Premiums		AMBER		Cabinet

Report Title	Summary of Issues & Proposed Recommendation	Scrutiny Traffic light status	Consultees	Decision Maker
	An unoccupied and unfurnished premium of 50% was introduced in April 2022 and was subsequently increased to 100% with effect from April 2023. Despite the number of long term unoccupied premiums has not reduced significantly we have asked to review the existing scheme and consider whether introducing an alternative premium scheme is appropriate which charges higher premiums dependent on the length of time the property has been unoccupied and unfurnished.

	Following the Grenfell Towers tragedy, Cardiff Council tested the cladding on its' domestic high-rise blocks of flats and took the decision to remove it. A phased approach was taken for the re-cladding of these blocks. Phase 1 – Lydstep Flats is currently at the construction stage, and it is now the intention to move to Phase 2 – Nelson House / Loudoun House. Consultants were engaged to develop design options for the Council to consider. The option considered the safest in respect of fire safety was to move forward with the brick option, and this is the option that was approved for phase 1 (Lydsetp Flats). The same option is proposed for Nelson House / Loudoun House. The recommendation is to appoint a Contractor to deliver these works via a mini competition under the South SEWSCAP3 Framework.		in person and via letters.
