Council Motion - Cardiff as a City for CEDAW

The following commitments have been incorporated into the revised regional Violence against Women, Domestic Abuse and Sexual Violence Strategy 2023-2028:

Commitments:	Strategy Content:
To provide advice and information through the	The Council already has a community Hubs and Libraries across Cardiff to help	blueprint for these activities women and girls to access all benefits to which they	through its network of Hubs and are entitled, including a booklet of rights	libraries. This will be delivered in
To create a programme of activities, informed by	tandem with the Council's Child women and girls, to empower and engage women	Friendly City team. (Strategy page and girls, including a 'Rights Fest', 'Equalities	45).
Champions' and social impactful projects in Cardiff.	·
To ensure there are more Safe Spaces throughout	The Council will work with partners
Cardiff, involving women and girls in their creation.	leading the Safe Places and Safe Spaces schemes to increase provision, including Council Hubs and libraries and local businesses (Strategy page 56).
To deliver a strong VAWDASV strategy and	Included in the Strategy in the outcomes to increase the safety of all women and	Executive Summary (page 5),
girls in Cardiff.	Policy and Legislative Context
To ensure the Cardiff VAWDASV strategy reflects	(page 15) and throughout the CEDAW and provides clear ambition and	document as identified.
deliverables towards ending all forms of violence against women and girls
To live by example: to continue to place	The Strategy includes a chapter accountability for abuse on those who cause harm,	on holding perpetrators to account by challenging and changing the culture of sexism	– Pursue (pages 32-37). Early and misogyny, through activities and interventions	intervention for those who have that address harmful behaviours and promote the	the potential to cause harm is also elimination of discrimination against women to	addressed in the Strategy (page people of all genders.	42). In addition, the Council continues to promote the White Ribbon campaign to encourage men and boys to take a lead on ending violence against women (page 46).

The following are/will be addressed through many existing commitments e.g. the Equality Act, our Strategic Equality Plan, our Workforce Strategy, modern slavery commitment and will be taken forward by the Council's Corporate Resources Directorate as part of the Corporate Plan 2023-26 – "Adopt the principles of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) by October 2023":

Commitments:

To review our programme of equalities/inclusion training to ensure the principles of CEDAW are highlighted and mainstreamed in and delivered through such training for Council staff and officers, including front-line staff.

To put in place measures that ensure the Council's workforce is measurably more representative and inclusive of the communities we serve. This includes strengthening and celebrating the work of our equalities network.

To ensure the principles of CEDAW are embedded in all decision-making, with equality impact assessments brought to scrutiny committees, thus fulfilling the public sector duty on gender.

To call on the Cabinet to bring forward to embed gender-sensitive urban planning in planning policy and urban design as part of the forthcoming Replacement Local Development Plan.

To call on the Cabinet to bring forward a report with concrete timetabled proposals to achieve the issues raised in this motion.