
COVID-19 RECOVERY IN SCHOOLS

Purpose of the Report

1. For Members to receive a brief update of this issue ahead of a number of presentations on the latest position in relation to Covid-19 Recovery in Schools being made at this meeting of the Scrutiny Committee. This is a follow up arising from a deep dive scrutiny on this issue in December 2022.

Background

2. At its work programming forum on the 19th July 2022, Members of this Committee agreed that they would wish for “Covid-19 Recovery in Schools” to be a priority topic during 2022/23 and that bi-annual reports be considered by the Committee – one following the start of the school year, and one towards the end of the school year, looking towards the Summer Programme.
3. On the 13 December 2022, Members dedicated its formal CYPSC meeting to undertake a short, deep dive scrutiny into this issue. During the way forward, it was agreed that an update be considered at the July 2023 meeting. The output letter from this Committee arising from the December 2022 meeting is attached at Appendix A, with the Cabinet response attached at Appendix B.

Legal Implications

10. The Scrutiny Committee is empowered to enquire, consider, review and recommend but not to make policy decisions. As the recommendations in this report are to consider and review matters there are no direct legal implications. However, legal implications may arise if and when the matters under review are implemented with or without any modifications. Any report with recommendations for decision that goes to Cabinet will set out any legal implications arising from those recommendations. All decisions taken by or on behalf of the Council must (a) be within the legal powers of the Council; (b) comply with any procedural requirement imposed by law; (c) be within the powers of the body or person exercising powers on behalf of the Council; (d) be undertaken in accordance with the procedural requirements imposed by the Council e.g. Scrutiny Procedure Rules; (e) be fully and properly informed; (f) be properly motivated; (g) be taken having regard to the Council's fiduciary duty to its taxpayers; and (h) be reasonable and proper in all the circumstances.

Financial Implications

11. The Scrutiny Committee is empowered to enquire, consider, review and recommend but not to make policy decisions. As the recommendations in this report are to consider and review matters there are no direct financial implications at this stage in relation to any of the work programme. However, financial implications may arise if and when the matters under review are implemented with or without any modifications. Any report with recommendations for decision that goes to Cabinet will set out any financial implications arising from those recommendations.

RECOMMENDATION

That Committee considers this report and information provided at the meeting and agrees any recommendations, comments or advice it wishes to offer to the Cabinet Member, Head Teachers in attendance and Senior Officers in Education & Lifelong Learning; and any future scrutiny Members may wish to undertake on this issue.
