The Standards & Ethics Committee performs an important role in promoting and maintaining high standards of conduct of elected members of Cardiff Council and the six Community Councils within its area. The Committee is comprised of five Independent members, one community councillor and three county councillors. We will shortly have two Independent Member vacancies due to members coming to the end of their term. Appointments are made for a term of between 4 to 6 years, and may be extended for a further 4-year term.

For this role, you will need to:

- Have a general interest in ethical issues
- Be of good character
- Demonstrate a commitment to the Seven Principles of Public Life (the Nolan principles; selflessness; integrity; objectivity; accountability; openness; honesty; leadership)
- Have an understanding of governance in a corporate body
- Have the capacity to be independent, objective and strong minded
- Have no business connection with the Council
- Be able to analyse evidence, issues and problems
- Be able to communicate and contribute effectively in a committee environment
- Be politically independent
- Be able to commit on average 2 to 3 hours each month (which includes evening meetings) to the work of the Committee

The Committee usually meets on a quarterly basis and Independent members are asked to attend other Council and Committee meetings to observe proceedings and familiarise themselves with the work of the Council. Appropriate training will be provided for members to develop the necessary understanding and skills to effectively discharge their role. An allowance of £198 per day / £99 for half a day is paid, and expenses may be claimed for care, travel and subsistence.
